

Join a free walking tour May 5-7, 2017!

No registration required.

Unionville: A Confederation-Era Village

Friday, May 5, 2017, 2:00 p.m., 1 hour

Explore the rich stock of vintage buildings on Unionville's picturesque Main Street dating from the late 1860's to early 1870's as Canada emerged as a nation.

Walk leader: George Duncan Meet at: In front of the Varley Art Gallery, 216 Main Street, Unionville

A Day In The Life Of Thornhill in 1867

Saturday, May 6, 2017, 2:00 p.m., 1.5 hours

Hear about life in the village of Thornhill in the year of Confederation and visit buildings and sites that are part of that story.

Walk leader: Adam Birrell Meet at: Thornhill Village Library, 10 Colborne Street, Thornhill

Markham Rouge River Trail Walk

Sunday, May 7, 2017, 1:00 p.m., 1.5 hours

Walk along the upgraded and newly named Markham Rouge River Trail that is largely unexplored by most Markham residents.

Walk leader: Lorne Smith Meet at: Markham Village Library, 6031 Highway 7, Markham

Additional walks may be available. Please visit <http://janeswalk.org/> for the complete list of walks.

A walking movement for better cities

Citizen-led walking tours towards community-based city building

janeswalk.org

Jane's Walk is a global movement of free, citizen-led walking tours inspired by urbanist Jane Jacobs.

Jane's Walk is a project of Tides Canada Initiatives Society, a registered charity.

Jane's Walk is generously supported by:

 Knight Foundation

See all our supporters online.
Design by: Co-Effect Creative

